

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

I am not interrupted several times during diner hour, or from the precious time with my family.

I used to receive several calls per week, now I receive zero.

If I wish to purchase an item I will go to the store, or log on to a computer web site, I do not need telephone calls to attempt to entice me into buying an item that I hear being described!
